DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The specification has not been checked to the extent necessary to determine the presence of all possible minor errors. Applicant's cooperation is requested in correcting any errors of which applicant may become aware in the specification.

Double Patenting

2. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. A nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting rejection is appropriate where the conflicting claims are not identical, but at least one examined application claim is not patentably distinct from the reference claim(s) because the examined application claim is either anticipated by, or would have been obvious over, the reference claim(s). See, e.g., In re Berg, 140 F.3d 1428, 46 USPQ2d 1226 (Fed. Cir. 1998); In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) or 1.321(d) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent either is shown to be commonly owned with this application, or claims an invention made as a result of activities undertaken within the scope of a joint research agreement.

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

3. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3, 9 and 10 of U.S. Patent No. 6,534,685. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the present claims are used as a substitute for gas oil, without explicitly stating what percentage of the gas oil is replaced. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the liquid oxygenated product of the present invention with gas oil.

4. Claims 1 and 2 are provisionally rejected on the ground of nonstatutory obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3 of copending Application No. 10/373,781. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the present claims are used as a substitute for gas oil, without explicitly stating what percentage of the gas oil is replaced. Thus, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to combine the liquid oxygenated product of the present invention with gas oil.

This is a provisional obviousness-type double patenting rejection because the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1 and 2 provide for the use of a liquid oxygenated product, but, since the claim does not set forth any steps involved in the method/process, it is unclear what method/process applicant is intending to encompass. A claim is indefinite where it merely recites a use without any active, positive steps delimiting how this use is actually practiced.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 because the claimed recitation of a use, without setting forth any steps involved in the process, results in an improper definition of a process, i.e., results in a claim which is not a proper process claim under 35 U.S.C. 101. See for example Ex parte Dunki, 153 USPQ 678 (Bd.App. 1967) and Clinical Products, Ltd. v. Brenner, 255 F. Supp. 131, 149 USPQ 475 (D.D.C. 1966).

Art Unit: 1714

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moulton (US 5,746,785) or Hagen (US 6,166,266) or EP 1,070,755.

9. The prior art references teach dialkyl-polyformals of the formulae $C_nH_{2n+1}O(CH_2O)_xC_nH_{2n+1}$ wherein n and x are 1 or greater (Moulton; col. 2, lines 20-28); $CH_3(CH_2O)_nCH_3$ wherein n is a number from 1 to 10 (Hagen; col. 1, lines 8-12; col. 5, line 53 through col. 6, line 1); and $RO(CH_2O)_mR$ wherein R is C_nH_{2n+1} alkyl chain, m is an integer equal to or greater than 2 and less than or equal to 6 and n is an integer ranging from 1 to 10 (see abstract). The claims as drafted are directed to the compound per se and intended use is given no patentable weight. Accordingly, Moulton, Hagen and EP teaching all the limitations of the claims anticipate the claims.

10. Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Patrini 6,534,685 or Patrini US 20030159341.

The applied reference has a common inventor with the instant application. Based upon the earlier effective U.S. filing date of the reference, it constitutes prior art under 35 U.S.C. 102(e). This rejection under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) might be overcome either by a showing under 37 CFR 1.132 that any invention disclosed but not claimed in the reference was derived from the inventor of this application and is thus not the invention "by another," or by an appropriate showing under 37 CFR 1.131.

The references teach dialkyl-polyformals of the formula $\text{RO}(\text{CH}_2\text{O})_m\text{R}$ wherein R is $\text{C}_n\text{H}_{2n+1}$ alkyl chain, m is an integer equal to or greater than 2 and less than or equal to 6, n is an integer ranging from 1 to 10 (see abstract). The claims as drafted are directed to the compound per se and intended use is given no patentable weight. Accordingly, the Patrini references anticipate the claims.

11. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is cited for teaching the general state of the art and is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.
